The SBL International Travel Awards offer opportunities to current SBL members outside North America to attend the Annual or International Meeting, to participate in the program, to enhance their professional development, and to build their network with fellow scholars. These grants help facilitate the work of Program Units and the International Cooperation Initiative (“ICI”). These grants are intended to support underrepresented and underresourced scholars. As such, preference will be given to women, people of historically underrepresented ethnicities, and members from ICI-qualifying countries. A key criterion is an applicant’s demonstrable financial need.

The International Travel Awards defray transportation, hotel accommodations, and other expenses incurred for the Annual or International Meetings.

Four International Travel Award Panels (ITAP) administer the awards each year, serving four geographic regions:

- Africa and Middle East- Jackie Du Toit, Kenneth Ngwa Carmen Palmer, Nasili Vaka’uta
- Asia and Pacific- Teogilo Correa, Carmen Palmer, Nasili Vaka’uta
- Eastern Europe-, Urmas Nommik, Carmen Palmer, Alexey Somov, Nasili Vaka’uta
- Latin America and Caribbean- Wellington Casagrande, Nelson Morales, Carmen Palmer, Nasili Vaka’uta

We would like express our sincere thanks to all applicants and donors of the Society. Your contributions to the Society of Biblical Literature strengthen our mission to foster biblical scholarship globally.
