JOURNEY TO THE COPPER AGE

ARCHAEOLOGY IN THE HOLY LAND

Travel to a world 6,000 years ago to explore the beginnings of ancient metal production and learn how this technology changed the way we live today. See spectacular artifacts, many shown for the first time outside of Israel, enjoy sensational National Geographic photographs, and experience the thrill of archaeology!

Journey to the Copper Age was produced by the San Diego Museum of Man and the Israel Museum, Jerusalem, in partnership with the Israel Antiquities Authority, the National Geographic Museum, and the University of California, San Diego.

Major sponsorship is provided by the Viterbi Family Fund of the Jewish Community Foundation, Skirball Foundation, Charmaine and Maurice Kaplan, Earl Feldman, Trustee, Novak Charitable Trust, Waitt Institute for Discovery, DLA Piper, Northern Trust, Patrons of the Prado, XLNC1 classical 90.7 FM, KPBS, The San Diego Foundation, and The Westgate, official hotel of Copper Age.
